

CONTACT

Jobst Pfaender
ZOOLOGICAL RESEARCH MUSEUM
ALEXANDER KOENIG
Adenauerallee 160
D-53113 Bonn, Germany
jobst.pfaender.zfmk@uni-bonn.de

www.zfmk.de

6th International Tropical Zoology Symposium

Zoological
Research Museum
Alexander Koenig
Bonn, Germany

May 3-8, 2009

www.tropical-vertebrates.org

The conference will take place from May 3 - 8, 2009 in Bonn, Germany.

Geographical focus of the symposium are the tropical regions of Africa (with Madagascar), America, and Asia. Contributions on their vertebrate faunas ranging from studies on systematics and zoogeography to analyses of distribution patterns, ecology, and conservation issues are welcome.

INVITED SPEAKERS

Steven Goodman, USA
Key Notes on Vertebrates of Madagascar.

L. Lee Grismer, USA
Herpetofaunal Surveys in Vietnam, Cambodia, and Malaysia.

Doug Hoese, Australia
Systematics and Ecology of Gobioid Fishes.

Nicholas Oguge, Kenya
Climate Change and Conservation Challenges of African Vertebrates.

John Rappole, USA
Rapid Range Change in Subtropical Birds: Response to Global Climate Change?

Miguel Vences, Germany
Distribution of Species and Genes in the Malagasy Herpetofauna: Assessing the Present, Modelling the Past and the Future.

THE SYMPOSIUM IS ORGANIZED BY THE VERTEBRATE DEPARTMENT

W. Böhme (Herpetology)
R. van den Elzen (Ornithology)
F. Herder (Ichthyology)
R. Hutterer (Theriology)
G. Peters (Theriology)
J. Pfaender (Ichthyology)
K.-L. Schuchmann (Ornithology)

PRESENTATIONS

4 symposia: Africa
Madagascar
Central & South America
South East Asia

Poster session

CONFERENCE VENUE

Zoological Research Museum
Alexander Koenig
Adenauerallee 160
53113 Bonn, Germany

REGISTRATION

Online registration will open on October 6, 2008.

Please register on:
<http://www.tropical-vertebrates.org>

CONFERENCE FEE

Payment before March 1, 2009:

Regular:
120.- EUR (proceedings volume included)
60.- EUR (proceedings volume not included)

Student:
100.- EUR (proceedings volume included)
40.- EUR (proceedings volume not included)

(Includes ice-breaker-party)

There will be a conference dinner on Wednesday, May 6, 2009. Attendance requires an additional payment of 28€ and can be booked on the registration form.

